

Jennifer Ann Stollman Ph.D.
Academic Director, William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation
University of Mississippi
stollman@winterinstitute.org
662.915.1605

Education

Michigan State University, Ph.D., American History December 2001

Fields: American History, comparative American and European Women's, African-American, and Anthropology (completed at University of Michigan).

Specializations: Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century social history, United States Southern history, ethnic, gender, race, and sexuality studies, history theory, and cultural anthropology theory.

Wayne State University, M.A., American History April 1994

Fields: Labor, American Women, American Medicine
Specializations: American Social and Labor Movements,
Midwestern Rural History

University of Michigan, B.G.S., American History and English Literature. December 1989

Dissertation: "Building Up a House of Israel in a Land of Christ:" Jewish Women in the Antebellum and Civil War South"

Advisors:

Lisa Fine, professor of American Women and Labor History, Michigan State University.
Dagmar Herzog, professor of History of Sexuality, Michigan State University.
Kenneth Waltzer, professor of American History, Michigan State University.
Robert Bonner, professor of Intellectual Southern History, Michigan State University.
Eric Goldstein, professor of American Jewish History, Emory University.
Maureen Flanagan, professor of American History, Michigan State University.
Susan Sleeper-Smith, professor of American History, Michigan State University.
Darlene Clark Hine, professor of African-American History, Michigan State University.
Crisca Bierwert, professor of Anthropology, University of Michigan.

Research Interests:

--The development and deployment of collective and individual identities.
--Exploration of racial discourses
--Anti-oppression activism and techniques

Work Experience:

Academic Director, William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation, University of Mississippi, Winter 2013-present

- Develop curriculum for all Winter Institute curricular and co-curricular programming, including Welcome Table and Summer Youth Institute. professional development for students, staff, faculty, and administration.
- Develop and execute campus collaborations related to anti-racism and anti-oppression.
- Conduct campus crisis management.
- Served as consultant on developing diversity skills/awareness for campuses in the Deep South and across the nation.
- Collaborator on campus conferences.

- Work and advise student groups and Greek Life.
- Work with campus groups dedicated to anti-oppression and equity.
- Initiate and collaborate with others on anti-oppression initiatives.
- Develop, execute, and facilitate in co-curricular programs related to equity and oppression.
- Develop and execute the Social Justice Minor.
- Develop and implement Summer Youth Institute curriculum.
- Supervise, educate, and train Institute interns, graduate practicum, and law school students.
- Develop and execute training for Winter Institute community collaborations.
- Create and execute the Welcome Table Certificate and certification programs.
- Develop and execute Welcome Table training for corporate and non-profit organizations.

Consultant:

University of Mississippi Law School
 University of Southern University of Southern Mississippi
 Tulane University
 Bowdoin College, Colgate University
 Fort Lewis College
 University of Montevallo
 Americorps/CCC
 Alabama Possible
 Alabama Association of Higher Education Diversity Officers
 Mississippi Department of Archives and History
 City of New Orleans
 Mississippi Center for Justice

University of Mississippi Medical School
 Mississippi, Delta State University
 Northeast Mississippi Community College
 University of Alabama
 Columbia University
 Oakwood University
 University of North Alabama
 Teach for America
 Mississippi Civil Rights Education
 Museum of the Mississippi Delta
 Memphis Veterans Hospital
 Institute for Southern Jewish Life

- Extensive consulting, professional development, student training, assets and resource mapping, developing and executing anti-oppression conferences and initiatives development, anti-oppression training related to race, class, religion, ethnicity, gender, religions and sexuality issues, strategic plan development, faculty convocations, and keynote addresses.

Associate Professor, Department of History Fort Lewis College, Fall 2012
 and Gender and Women's Studies Program

- Develop and taught lower and upper division courses.
- Conducted assessment and developed assessment measures and tools.
- Develop and execute curricular and co-curricular programs.

Assistant Professor, Department of History Fort Lewis College, Fall 2008-2012.
 and Gender and Women's Studies Program

- Developed and taught lower and upper division courses.

Coordinator, Gender and Women's Studies Program, Fort Lewis College, Fall 2009-Spring 2010

- Scheduling, conducting meetings, promoting curricular development, evaluating assessment methods, attending AHSS and Council of Chair meetings, creating governance papers, representing GWS Program in local, state, and national organizations, recruiting students, promoting greater faculty involvement in the program, coordinating Women's History Month, and managing budget.

Visiting Professor, St. Peters College, Oxford University, Summer 2007

- Researched on Anglican Deaconess movements.
- Advised students on research and course specialties

Chair, Department of History and Political Science, Salem College, Fall 2006

- Hiring, budgeting issues, scheduling, development and implementation of departmental strategic plans, faculty reviews, students assessments.

- Assistant Professor, History and Political Science Department, Salem College, Fall 2004
- Developed and taught lectures for American history surveys, Intellectual and Social history, and women's history
- Visiting Assistant Professor, History Department, Miami University of Ohio, Fall 2003-Winter 2004
- Developed and taught lectures for the American history surveys, the history of American sexuality, Civil Rights history, and medicine in the nineteenth century.
- Visiting Assistant Professor, History and Southern Studies Departments, University of Mississippi, Fall 2002-Winter 2003
- Developed and taught lectures on the American Surveys and southern studies courses, and created and ran graduate seminars on evolution of gender and sexuality in the nineteenth-century south and ethnicity in the south.
- Visiting Assistant Professor, Public Affairs, James Madison College, Michigan State University, Spring 2002
- Developed and taught lectures and discussions for a course on American political, economic, and social systems and how they shape and affect contemporary approaches to national and international public affairs, globalization, capitalism and democracy.
- Visiting Assistant Professor, American History, Lansing Community College, Spring 2002
- Taught first half of the American survey. Developed and supervised course lectures, assignments, and examinations. An introductory course, this class familiarized students with early, revolutionary, and nineteenth-century American political, social, and economic systems, ideologies, and events.
- Instructor, World Civilization, Oakland Community College, Fall 2001.
- Developed and taught course curriculum designed to familiarize undergraduates with the emergence and development of Mesopotamian, Babylonian, Egyptian, African, Asian, Indian, Islamic, European, and North American Civilizations.
- Instructor, United States History, Michigan State University, 2000-2001
- Developed and taught course where liberal arts majors explore events, themes, and discourses in United States history.
- Instructor, African-American Women's History, Michigan State University, Spring 1999
- Developed and taught course curriculum designed to educate upper level undergraduates on the historical experiences, contributions, and narratives regarding African-American women from the Middle Passage until the present day.
- Instructor, United States History, Oakland Community College, 1995, 1997, 1999
- Developed and taught course on the themes, events, and debates in American History from the emergence of Native American Civilization to present day.
- Instructor, Michigan History, Oakland Community College, 1994-1996
- Developed and taught course on the economic, social, and political aspects of Michigan history.
- Instructor, World Civilization, Schoolcraft Community College, 1995-1996
- Developed and taught course curriculum designed to familiarize undergraduates with emergence, development, and interconnectedness of world civilizations.
- Teaching Assistant, Michigan State University, 1995-2001
- Assisted and taught , graded papers and examinations, lead weekly discussions, facilitated and monitored student progress for undergraduate lecture courses. Including United States Business and Economic History, United States Women History, African-American History, and American Jewish Culture,

Relevant Courses Developed and Taught:

History and American Studies

U. S. Survey Contact-1877
U.S. Survey 1877-Present
African-American History
Native American History
Encounters with Difference
Atlantic History
Early American Wars
War in America
History of American Thought
Inventing America
American Medical History
American Southern History
U. S. Women's History: Contact -1877
U. S. Women's History: 1877-Present
Women and American Medicine
History of the American South
Ethnicity and the South
History of American Religion
History of Emotion
History of Disaster
Historic Preservation
Israel and the Uses of Historical Narratives
World Civilization Enlightenment-Present

Philosophy and Methods
Research Seminar
Theories of History

Gender and Women's Studies

Introductory Course
Capstone Course
American Sexualities
American Women's History
Women and American Medicine
Queer Theory
Masculinities

Honors Courses

Superhero as a Trope in the United States
History of Disaster
History of Emotion
Villains as a Trope in the United States
Obama Writings
Legal Cases in the South
American Democracy and Fiscal Responsibility
Program
Democracy

Selected Scholarly Publications

- "Race Poverty and Mississippi," co-authored with Susan M. Glisson in Kyle Fambry, ed. The War on Poverty: A Retrospective, Lexington Books, 2014.
- "The Imagined Bayonet of Whiteness Slices Both Ways: The University of Mississippi and its Odd Relationship with Racial Supremacy" Alliance for Historical Dialogue and Accountability, Columbia University, November 2013.
- "Primary Documents—Antebellum South" American Jewish Studies, forthcoming.
- "Civility is So Much More Than Southern Hospitality" in The Ole Miss Experience: First Year Experience Text, Nautilus Publishing Company, (written and revised every year since 2013).
- Daughters of Israel, Daughters of the South: Jewish Women and Jewish Identity in the Antebellum and Civil War South*, Academic Studies Press, 2013.
- "The Civil War and Immigration" in The Civil War in American Life and Culture: A Social History with Documents edited by Zoe Trodd and Alex Kent Williamson. Routledge, October, 2012.
- "History Matters: Teaching Relevant History to a New Generation of Service Oriented Students," History Under Debate, forthcoming.
- South Carolina Women: Their Lives and Ties—Volume 1*, Book Review, The South Carolina Historical Magazine, (forthcoming--submitted Fall 2010).
- "Rebecca Nurse," Encyclopedia of Women's History (forthcoming-submitted Summer 2010).
- Down Home: Jewish Life in North Carolina*, Book Review, Journal of Southern History, (2011).
- "America's Future, Civic Engagement and the Public University" PS: Political Science and Politics, April 2010.
- "What is a Southerner: A Study in Southern Jewish Identity". Derek Catsam and Jeff Woods, editors. Sajundi: The Journal of South African and American Studies, July 2008.
- "The Pen is Mightier than the Sword: Southern Jewish Female Writers Contest Anti-Semitism and Promote Domestic Judaism" in Jewish Roots in Southern Soil: A New History of Jewish Life in the American South Marcie Ferris and Mark Greenberg, editors, Brandeis University, 2006.
- "Courage Displaces Fear, Love Transforms Hate:" Diane Nash, Civil Rights Activism, and the Commitment to Non-Violence" in The Human Tradition and the Civil Rights Movement, Susan Glisson, editor, Rowman & Littlefield Publishers, Inc. 2006.
- Entries for the Encyclopedia of Slave Resistance and Rebellions, "Beloved" and "Birth of a Nation" 2008.
- Entry for the South Carolina Encyclopedia, entry "Penina Moise." 2006.

Contributor to Encyclopedia of Southern Culture, entry "Jews in the South." 2006.
Contributing book reviewer for H-Net.
Contributing book reviewer for the Journal of Southern History.
Contributing book reviewer for the Raleigh News and Observer. 2003.
Contributing book reviewer for the Southern Register: The Newsletter of the Center for Study of Southern Culture. 2002-2003.

Selected Scholarly Presentations and Development:

Keynote Address, Black History Month, Oakwood University, February 2016.
"A Different Kind of Boots on the Ground," Commencement Address, School of Social Work, Tulane University, 2015.
"Looking Within: Building Our Communities Through Self-Reflection," Keynote Address, Alabama Possible, Judson College, September 18th, 2015.
Memphis Veterans Hospital Anti-Racism Training, Memphis, 2013-present.
Faculty Convocation, University of Montevallo, University of Montevallo, August, 2015.
"Managing Class Conflict," Department of Social Work, Tulane University, August, 2015.
American Jewish Society for Service, Entry Training, Memphis, June and August, 2015.
"Anti-Oppression Training," Teach for America, Delta State University, June, 2015
"How to Create an Inclusive Classroom," Mississippi Department of History and Archives, Jackson, June, 2015
"Anti-Oppression Training, Americorps, Vicksburg, June, 2015.
"Winning the Race" Conference, program developer and facilitator, Delta State University, April, 2015.
University of Maryland, "Jews and Service in the South, Greenwood, March 2015.
"Endangering Equality Through Perceived Equity: Women's History and Its Crucial Role in Contemporary Fights for Justice," Women's History Month Keynote Speaker, University of Southern Mississippi, March 2015.
Professional Development and Training, St Andrews, Mississippi, January 2014.
"Campus Inclusivity: A Full-Throttle Approach," Keynote Address, Alabama Association of Higher Education Diversity Officers, November 2014.
"Creating a Classroom and Campus for all Learners," University of Southern Mississippi, September 2014.
"Creating a More Diverse and Inclusive Campus," University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, September 2014.
"Diversity and Inclusion: More Complex Historical and Contemporary Understandings," Bowdoin College, April 2014.
"Changing the Academic Context for a More Inclusive Environment," Columbia University, December, 2013
"Taking a Break from the Literature: Intuitive Teaching and Relying on Our Own Skills." Lets Talk Teaching, Fort Lewis College, November, 2012.
"We are Patriots despite Our Nativity;" The Civil War and Immigrant Loyalty," Southern American Studies Association Conference, Charleston, January 21-February 2nd 2013, paper accepted.
"Fill the Ranks and March Away: The Civil War and Immigration," Southern Historical Association meeting, St. Louis, Missouri, October 31-November 3, 2013, paper accepted.
"More than a Month," panel discussion, Durango Community Theater and Mancos Public Library, 2012.
"Post 911 Blockbuster Sexism, Racism, and Homosexual Fantasy: An Examination of Black Swan and Avatar and the Continuation of Anti-Feminist Symbolism in Film" paper accepted by the Hawaii International Conference on Humanities, January 2012.
"We Passed Our Days in Doing What We Considered to be Our Duty: Southern Jewish Women's Activities During the Civil War," American Jewish Studies Annual Conference, Washington D. C., December 2011
William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation at the University of Mississippi, Strategic Planning Conference, Belfast, November 2011.
Pray the Devil Back to Hell, Film Discussion, Durango and Mancos, September 2011.
"Marketplace(s) of Desire: Historicizing Black Female Sexual Labor from the Eighteenth to the Twentieth Century, Chair, Berkshire Conference of Women's Historians, June 2011.
"An Ardent Attachment to My Birth: Antebellum Southern Jewish Women as Confederate Ambassadors," Conference on Jews, Slavery and the Civil War, Charleston, SC, May, 2011.
"Brown Bag Lunch: "Senior Seminars," Fort Lewis College, March 2011.
"Tables of Content," Fort Lewis College, Durango, February 2011.
"Empower the Dream, Inspire the Change," Fort Lewis College, Durango, February 2011.
"History Matters: Teaching Relevant History to a New Generation of Service Oriented Students," 4th International Congress: History Under Debate, December 2010.
"History Goes to Hollywood and the Beach: The Strengths and Challenges of Using Film and Fiction to Learn and Critically Analyze History," the 4th International Congress: History Under Debate, December 2010.

“Gender and Women’s Studies Welcome Back Current Gender Issues Discussion Facilitator,” Fort Lewis College, September 2010.

“International Peace Day: Pray the Devil Back to Hell Film Discussion” Fort Lewis College, September 2010.

“Battle Lines and Paradigms: The Role of the Scholar/Activist in the 21st Century,” Commencement Address, Salem College, May 2010.

“Introduction to Inaugural Reece Kelly Lecture Speaker, Dagmar Herzog,” Fort Lewis College, April 2010.

“The Business of Being Born,” panel discussant, Fort Lewis College, March 2010.

“Introduction to Women’s History Month Keynote Speaker, Alison Jaggar,” Fort Lewis College, March 2010.

“Speech Commemorating Martin Luther King Jr. Day,” Fort Lewis College, January 2010.

“The Role of Faculty in Student-Centered Learning and Co-Curricular Life, COPLAC National Conference, Washington D.C., January 2010.

“Cultivating Civic Engagement Across the Curriculum and the Campus, “ American Democracy Project Annual Meeting, Baltimore, June 2009.

“The Role of Faculty in Student-Centered Learning and Co-Curricular Life, COPLAC Summer Faculty Institute on Liberal Learning in the Disciplines, UNC-Asheville, June 2009.

“John Saul Howson, Dean of Chester Cathedral: An Unlikely Feminist” Mid-Atlantic Conference on British Studies Annual Meeting, Virginia Commonwealth University, April 2009.

“Obama Elected: Are We Living in a Post-Racial Society?” Fort Lewis College, December 2008.

Fiscal Responsibility, The American Democracy Project, Fort Lewis College, October 2008.

“Ecclesiastes in a Modern World,” College Commencement Ceremonies, Salem College, May 2007.

“Diane McWhorter’s Carry Me Home,” orchestrated and led reading group, Salem College, May 2007.

“Understanding Judaism in the Christian South,” Panel, Salem College, April 2007.

“Facilitating Campus Diversity at Salem College” Panel, Salem College, April 2007.

“Southern Masculinity and Honor and the Connections to Violence” Greensboro Truth and Reconciliation Commission Panel, Salem College, February 2007.

“Breaking the Stereotypes: Examining Anti-Hispanic Conservative and Liberal Media Portrayals” Salem College, October 2006.

“Understanding bell hooks’ Recent Work on Love,” Salem College, October 2006.

What is the Relevance of the Single Sister’s House to Us Today?” Salem College September 2006.

“Further Explorations of Race in Specific Disciplinary Contexts” Chair, Race and Pedagogy National Conference, University of Puget Sound, September 2006.

Gilder-Lehrman Institute, Yale Seminar on Slavery and Public Memory, Columbia University, June 2006 (nominated participant).

Activists Talking Past Each Other: The Challenges of Racial Reconciliation Conversation on a College Campus, William Winter Racial Reconciliation Institute and UNESCO’s Education Project, June 23, 2006.

Panel on Women’s Colleges, Salem College, March 28, 2006.

“The History of Women’s Colleges” Salem College, February 2006.

“Intelligent Design: An Explanation and Exploration” Salem College, Interdepartmental Lecture Series, November 2005.(organized and presented).

“Women and Body Image: “ A Discussion of Margaret Atwood’s “The Female Body,” Salem College, November 2005.

“The Ninth Amendment: Those Unwritten Rights” Salem College: Constitution Day Program, September 2005.

“Inspiring Students Through Scholarship and Teaching” Salem College: Faculty Retreat, August 2005.

“Using Memoirs to Teach Civil Rights History,” The Chaney, Goodman, Schwerner Living Memorial Civil Rights Education Summit and UNESCO’s Breaking the Silence Project, Philadelphia, MS, June 2005.

“The Evolution of African-American Civil Rights: A Conversation 300 Years in the Making” Wake Forest University, May 2005.

“Lunch and Learn: Teaching Writing Effectively Across the Disciplines: History, A Case Study,” Salem College, March 2005.

“The Ninth Amendment”: Constitution Day Panel, presenter and organizer, Salem College, September 2005.

“Under Siege: Effective Writing for History: A Series of Workshops for the Undergraduate Population,” Salem College, February 2005.

“Our Raison D’Etre: Black Clubwomen’s Activities in the Era of Jim Crow,” Salem College, February 2005.

“Anti-Semitism and its Consequences for Dissident Religious Women,” University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, February 2005.

“Antebellum Southern Jewish Women and Their Activities,” University of Virginia’s Institute for Public History, Spring 2004.

“Anti-Semitism and Education for Jewish Southerners in the Decades leading to the Civil War”: Southern Association for Women Historians, Athens, GA., June 2003.

“Ethnicity and Race and the Construction of American Sexuality,” Miami University, Fall 2003.

“Antebellum Women fighting Anti-Semitism through Public and Private Writing” Association for Jewish Studies, Fall 2003.

“Driving Miss Daisy—Miss Daisy Drives Herself--Delta Jewish Women in the Twentieth Century,” Southern Jewish History Association, Fall 2003.

““Hidden, Silenced, and Marginalized”: Finding Southern Jewish Women in American History.” Faculty Forum Series, Center for the Study of Southern Culture, University of Mississippi, Lecture, Spring, 2003.

““The Pen is Mightier than the Sword”: Southern Jewish Female Writers Question Anti-Semitism and Promote Domestic Judaism.” Sarah Isom Women Studies Center, University of Mississippi, Lecture, Spring 2003.

“Saving The Race from Catastrophe”: Alternative Forms of Antebellum Southern Jewish Education.” Center for Southern Studies, University of Mississippi, Spring 2003.

“Relationships in Bondage”: Antebellum Southern Jewish Women and Their Relationships with Enslaved African-Americans.” Conference on American Jewish History, June 9-11, 2002.

“Establishing Jewish Roots in Christian Soil”: Antebellum Southern Jewish Women’s Associational Work” Savannah Women’s Federation, September 2000.

"Creating and Maintaining Alternative Jewish Identities: Penina Moise, Antebellum Southern Jewish Poet" at the American Academy of Religion/Midwest Region Studies Conference, DePaul University, March 2000.

"A Study of Midwestern Farm Women's Roles, 1815-1849," Wayne State University, March 1994.

Awards:

Lift Every Voice Award, Center for Inclusion and Cross-Cultural Engagement, University of Mississippi, 2015.

Alice Admire Outstanding Teaching Award, 2012.

SCAG, Fort Lewis College, 2010-2011.

TIPAA Grant, Fort Lewis College, 2009-2010.

TET Grants, Fort Lewis College, 2010-2012.

Outstanding Faculty Contribution, Fort Lewis College, Spring, 2010.

Outstanding Faculty Contribution, Fort Lewis College, Spring, 2009.

Omicron Delta Kappa, Outstanding Faculty Member—Teaching Award, Salem College 2005.

Visiting Scholar, St. Peters College, Oxford University, Summer, 2007.

Scholar, Gilder-Lehrman Institute of American History, Summer, 2006.

Faculty Development Award, 2005.

Honor Societies:

Phi Kappa Phi, Michigan State University, 1998- present.

Phi Alpha Theta, Wayne State University, 1993-present.

Omicron Delta Pi, 2006.

Governance:

Gender Pronoun Committee, Department of Writing and Rhetoric, University of Mississippi, 2015-present.

EDHE 105: Education Committee, Faculty Development Knowledge Area, University of Mississippi, 2015-present.

Diversity Committee, (sitting in for Susan Glisson), University of Mississippi, 2014-present.

C & P Committee, sitting in for Susan Glisson, University of Mississippi, 2013-present.

Managing Student Behavior Task Force, Fort Lewis College, 2012-2013

Center for Teaching and Learning Task Force, 2012-present

Assessment Committee 2011-2012

Committee on the Status of Women Faculty- 2010- present.

Gender and Women’s Studies Department 2008-present.

Student Orientation Participant, Fort Lewis College, 2008-present.

Department of Philosophy Self-Study, Outside Reviewer.

Council of Chairs AHSS, Fort Lewis College, 2009-2010.

Committee on Transdisciplinarity, Fort Lewis College, 2009-2010.

Attended NAHLC Annual Conference, Chicago 2011.

Attended NEH Seminar, University of New Mexico, April, 2011.

Attended COPLAC Conference, Fort Lewis College, June, 2009.

Attended AASCU Conference, Fort Lewis College, June, 2009.

Served on Anthropology Search Committee, 2009.
 Faculty Retreat organizer, Salem College, August 2006.
 Scholarship Weekend Lecturer, Salem College, 2006.
 Chatham Scholarship Committee, Salem College, 2006.
 Faculty Forum Leader: Welcome Letter for the President, Salem College, 2006.
 Faculty Athletics Representative, Salem College, 2005-2007.
 Sophomore/ Faculty Retreat, planner and presenter, Salem College, 2005-2006.
 Cultural Events Committee, Member, 2005-2007, Salem College.
 Faculty Affairs Committee: Member, Secretary, Salem College, 2005-2007.
 Strategic Planning Steering Committee: Member, Salem College, 2005-2007.
 Salem College Ad Hoc Committee on Writing, Salem College, 2005-2008.
 Gramley Scholarship Committee, Salem College, 2004.
 Recruitment for Salem College, 2004-2008.
 Sister Oesterlein Award Committee, Salem College, 2006-2007.

Advising:

PRIDE, University of Mississippi, 2013-present.
 NAACP, (informal advisor) University of Mississippi 2015-present.
 One Mississippi, (formal and informal advisor) University of Mississippi, 2013-present.
 UM Greek Fraternities and Sororities (informal advisor on equity issues), University of Mississippi, 2013-present.
 Muslim Student Association, (informal advisory) University of Mississippi, 2014-present.
 Israeli/Palestinian Awareness Club, Faculty Advisor, Fort Lewis College, 2012-2013.
 Native American Honors Society Faculty Advisor, Fort Lewis College, 2011-2013.
 History Club Faculty Advisor, Fort Lewis College, 2009.
 GWS Advisor, Fort Lewis College, 2008-present.
 Senior Class Advisor, Salem College, 2006-2007.
 First Year Class Advisor, Salem College, 2004-2005.
 Phi Alpha Theta History Honor's Society, faculty advisor, Salem College, 2004-2008.
 Salem College Democrats, Faculty Advisor, Salem College, 2005-2006.
 BADU: Black student group at Salem College, faculty advisor, Salem College, 2004.
 ODK: Faculty Secretary for the College Honorary Society, Salem College, 2005-2007.
 Onua: Faculty Advisor for campus student diversity group, Salem College, 2005-2007.
 Salem Annual History Symposium—organizer and presenter, Salem College, 2004-2007.
 Salem College Semester Film Series, Salem College, 2004.
 Reviewer for Thomson Textbooks (2005)

Related Professional Experience

Interviewed by: The Daily Mississippian, Mississippi Public Broadcasting, BBC, CNN, ESPN, New Hampshire radio, Korean Broadcasting System
 Teaching Empowerment Team: Public History Option, Fort Lewis College, Winter 2011.
 Teaching Empowerment Team: History Senior Seminar, Fort Lewis College, Fall 2011.
 “Public Representations of Slavery” Gilder-Lehrman Institute Seminar, Columbia University, June, 2006
 Reader for American Jewish Studies Journal, 2005.
 Civil Rights Movement History Curriculum for the McComb, Mississippi and the Philadelphia, Mississippi Public School Systems, Advisory Board, 2005.
 International Conference on Race, University of Mississippi, October 2003, board member.
 History Research Consultant for History Channel Documentary, “Building a House of Israel in a Land of Jesus.”
 “Open Doors: Commemorating the 40th Integration of the University of Mississippi,” interviewer and coordinator.
 Midwest Advisory Board, Bar-Ilan University, responsible for fundraising, educational events, community outreach, 2001-present.
 Public Relations, Bar-Ilan University, responsible for public relations for the liberal arts colleges within the university, 1989-1990.

Professional Skills

Trained and skilled in using World Wide Web technology. Regularly use PowerPoint, Blackboard, and internet tools.

Community Outreach

President of the Board of Directors, La Plata Historical Society, 2012-2014

Board of Directors, Member, La Plata County Historical Society, 2010-2011

William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation, consultant.

Mississippi PieceWorks-A Southern Arts Collective—Developing its educational arm

OLAMOS Network

Memberships:

Southern Historical Association

American Historical Association

American Association of University Women

American Association of University Professors

Organization of American Historians

Phi Kappa Phi

Phi Alpha Theta

Omicron Delta Pi